1930 journal of Henry Hosie Rowland.

Friday, January 3

Mildred has severe pain in left breast. I urged her to let me take her to a doctor, but she refused.

After noon I went out calling on foot - beginning at M.L. Hawey's and ending at Slute's.

Mildred and I went to Sue Perkins to Missionary meeting. No one else came except Trevor and Caroline so we talked over the financial situation and after refreshments came home.

Praying much and with fervor at odd times and places for an infilling of the Spirit.
