

kindex[®]

< Scan QR to view this original record online, or visit <https://mccormick.kindex.org/s/98286>

Title: 1971-09-28 Mike McCormick letter to parents

Category: Document

Provenance:

Person:

Date:

Hi Mom and Dad, 9-28 Tuesday [1971]

Love,

I keep trying to make myself believe that I'm in Pennsylvania. It's not so hard to believe that I'm in Williamsport and at this college because that's all right around me. But I feel that Maryland is where I belong (or where most of me is) because I came from there and am only temporarily here and I will be back in Maryland again sometime. Well that's not so bad because I don't really get much chance to think about.

Mike

There's lots to be done. I've read 3 more Medieval Epics since I last told you of what I had read. 2 more Shakespeare plays (I think I said that I had read only one of either of these).

I have a Book Review to write in Religion on To a Dancing God by Sam Keem and a Psych test coming up on Friday. I have a ticket to see Marcel Marceau on Nov. 1 at the Scottish Rite Auditorium. Marcel the french

----- END OF PAGE 1 -----

panomimist who has been on the Red Skelton show and I'm sure many other shows

I wish I did write more often? no its not what I have to do so much It is better that I don't worry myself so much with it. Following a pattern is easier sometimes than writing any time.

All I can think of is deep things. Deep thoughts that keep my mind off my studying. It's good to concentrate. I'm learning to concentrate, but it's hard to keep it up without asking oneself what is the worth of it?