Jean Out doors. eating now much stronger myself.

M. had lady guests who all sat & chatted in their overcoats until nearly 10 p.m.

I conversed with Chang

Chin Yu of Chianghechuang

He seems to be quite enthus -iastic over Christianity & is very anxious for his boys to get an education & work for the Lord. He himself went to SHK to Study the Bible.

Thos his mother accused him of deserting the family. He opened the Bible to the plan about the marriage feast & next to

This one about not giving up family not being worthy.

Mon. Feb 16, 1920

Wrote a brief letter home.

Also one to N. Woodward &

Costello Disk. & to Han

Shan Feng a scorcher.

Auntie Dyer left for Peking

& Mrs Lawrence Tristain

Potts returned from a week and in Shanhaichuran.

Chang Ching Ching washed windows. He is a fine lad.

First wife died, took opium because of the Tyranny of her Mother-in Law. when engaged again. He said he would not subject another wife to his mother's cruelty. His bro's wife is half starving on the Nearby village rather than submit to bad treatment by her mother in law.
