1930 journal of Henry Hosie Rowland.

Monday, September 29

Cool. Clear.

Washed in new washer - great!

Peggy would not go to school on any promise or any threat until I took her up in the bathroom, got out my razor strap & took her across my knee. Then she said, "If you'll put that up, I'll go." She did & alone at that.

Went to Gen'l Min. Assn. at N.Y. Ave. Presby Church - Ate at Schneiders w some of the Meth. Ministers afterward.

With M. went out buying.

Evg - Meeting of Trustees & then Meeting of Church leaders.

Rather [...] to discouragement after dining with brilliant men, capable, efficient - but much encouraged by our evening gathering & the optimism & cooperation there.
