1930 journal of Henry Hosie Rowland.

Monday, April 14

Very warm, part clear.

Looked up Dr. Spencer again but in vain. Ordered picture for class album.

Called on Grace Kilbaugh at Sibley.

Ministers' Meeting - paper by Bert Constance on Wales in early history.

Quarterly Conference at night. Dr. Hand presiding. Fine supper by the Ladies. Excellent reports - signs of progress all round.

Finished reading Thos. E. Watson's Life & Times of Thomas Jefferson. A very informing, entertaining, pugnacious biography & history. How T.E. W. likes to roast Wm Eleroy Curtis for his "True Thos. J." & my old prof. at Harvard Edev. Channing for their many mistakes. I wonder if he has made many too!
