Dear Mom and Dad, 4-16-74 Tues.

I'm sure glad Reuben's back!

I got an 86 on my organic test giving me a 90.2 average for this semester's exams.

Its a beautiful day. Brightens things up. We had a thunder storm Sun eve with some hail (about pea size).

Reading Matthew also brightens things up or at least changes ones outlook.

It feels like Bermuda weather.

I checked out of organic lab today. I have a quiz tomorrow in sensory on a chapter on flicker fusion and phi phenomena. Next week on Tues is the sensory final and on Thurs is the organic final.

Thanks for the stamps.

Been doing any gardening. Curt Hanson is growing tomato plants in his room. The weather is getting nice for it.

It won't be long now. Good luck typing Dad's thesis, Mom. Congratulations, Dad, on getting your thesis finished.

God Bless. Love,

Mike
