Memoirs of Margaret Rachel Rowland McCormick.

homes& goodshaving been confiscated, many turned to Palestine, their ancient homeland. After all, their yearly Passover Festivals had ended [...] with "Next year in Jerusalem" & so they were yearning to return. But! some Arabs didn't want them & so persuaded Britain to put a stop to their coming or a limit at least. The Jews found ways to get around it where they could & one boatload, Exodus was not allowed to deliver its human cargo but ordered back to where it came from & the press made a big thing of it & got the world's sympathy. It was after this, [...], the UN partitioned the land the British land giving some they gave to the Arab the best part--& the rest to the Jew. The Jew said it wasn't much, "but we'll take it!" & the State of Israel was born in one day as the prophet Isaiah proclaimed about 2800 years ago! The Arab refused a state & attacked the tiny state of Israel the very next day. Mac & I had just gotten married in Feb. of that year & missed hearing about all this going on--(I had to read about it later to put it all together.) (I also learned later that the boat Exodus that was used was an old Bay Liner that went from Baltimore to Norfolk--a pleasure boat for coastal travel. It was overhauled, fixed up to carry as many as possible by the Jews--Joan's boyfriend's grandfather, Mr. Goodman, hear, was instrumental in the work being done on the old boat. It was done "in secret" or they worried whether it would even make it across the Atlantic! It did! & was named "Exodus".) The Arabs attacked Israel 4 times & lost every time, in '48, '56, 67 & 73 & finally realized they couldn't win in a war & so tried the Muslim "peace" trick--where we are at present in August 1999. The "peace" trick is to make peace 'til they get strong enough to strike & win. They're working on it. But we know the Lord is on the side of His people
