Warm. Rain at night

Needed a fire after early morning, but kept it up.

Up on the avenue to mail letters to Mut. Ben. agents, Ciolumbia Alumni News & to band in weekly literary publicity effort to the Rhode Island Avenue Press.

Peggy had crying spell at noon because her mother hindered her from disturbing Ann who is doing very well on the piano.

Went down to Library & intended to go to Tech-Central game, but left my money home.

Last trip to Baltimore. School done & I'm glad of it. It has been a very delightful though trying experience.
