Dear Mom and Dad, Sept. 13, 1972

It sure is good to hear about the goings on around there.

I had to borrow a chemistry book from my professor to study for a quiz we had this morning. The bookstore still doesn't have the Chemistry 1 text books. They should be in Friday. I think I did pretty well on the quiz. There are 90-100 people in my chem. class.

Reuben's [cat] hair falling out did look a little suspicious. I hope his eczema clears up right soon.

Although I get up early (5:30) it doesn't bother my roommate too much because he get up about 6:15 to go to work in the cafeteria cooking breakfast. He's doing a pretty good job.

It's been raining most of this morning. /Yesterday morning too/.

I'm reading Jung's Memories, Dream, Reflections for a book report in Personality Theory. We are to become specifically familiar with a theory of the theorist of our choice.

Say hi to Bill and Joan if they're around.

Love, Mike
